

Terms and disclaimer

Conditions for using the site and important limits on the information provided.

Plain-language notice

This document supports the payment gateway onboarding and integration service at paymentgatewayforgaminginindia.com. It has not been presented as lawyer-reviewed and is not legal advice.

1. Acceptance and purpose

By using paymentgatewayforgaminginindia.com, you agree to these terms. The site presents GPI Gateway's payment gateway onboarding, integration and operations service for eligible gaming businesses. Payment processing, acquiring, holding and settlement may be delivered through applicable banking, acquiring or payment infrastructure and only after approval. GPI Gateway is not a bank, card network or regulator.

2. No professional or regulatory advice

Content is not legal, tax, investment, compliance or financial advice. Online gaming and payment eligibility can depend on the product, player flow, merchant entity, state exposure, central rules, tax treatment, provider policy and banking policy. Obtain advice from qualified professionals for your facts.

3. No provider guarantee

A reference to UPI, cards, net banking, wallets or provider evaluation criteria does not mean a method is available to a particular merchant. We do not guarantee onboarding, approval, pricing, uptime, settlement timing or continued access. Provider rules and public information can change without notice.

4. Acceptable use

Do not misuse the site, probe or disrupt its systems, submit unlawful or deceptive material, impersonate another person, send payment credentials or player records, or use automated requests that burden the service. You are responsible for the accuracy and lawfulness of information you submit.

5. External sources

The site links to primary government and regulatory sources for convenience. External pages are controlled by their publishers. A link is not an endorsement, and we are not responsible for external availability, completeness or later changes.

6. Intellectual property

The site design, original text and generated visual assets are provided for use with this service. You may quote short passages with attribution and link to the page. You may not copy the site as a competing service, remove notices or imply our endorsement without written permission.

7. Liability limits

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the site is provided as available without warranties. GPI Gateway is not liable for decisions, onboarding outcomes, lost revenue, payment failures, partner or provider action, regulatory consequences or indirect loss arising from reliance on the site. Nothing excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.

8. Contact and updates

Questions about these terms may be sent to contact@paymentgatewayforgaminginindia.com. We may update these terms as the service changes. Continued use after publication of an update means the updated terms apply from their stated review date.
